

MOURVEDRE

2012 Winery by the Creek

Winemaker's Notes

This varietal is traditionally grown in the Rhone, specifically in Bandol, where sunshine and big wines are no problem. Amador exemplifies a similar growing situation—our 2012 vintage is a big wine, but smooth and satisfying.

This wine won Double Gold at the 2014 El Dorado County Fair Wine Competition.

Winery by the Creek

Winery by the Creek is nestled amongst the pine and oak forests of the Sierra Foothills in the small town of Fair Play, California. Its rural setting is breathtaking and serene. Centuries ago, it was home to native Northern Sierra Miwok tribes and later became a thriving mining camp, trading center and agricultural outpost during the Gold Rush. Today, Fair Play is an established American Viticultural Area where world-class wines are handcrafted.
